

The American Institute for the Advancement of Forensic Studies

Forensic Scholars Membership Program

AIAFS is a professional organization dedicated to providing interdisciplinary trainings and conferences to professionals working in the fields of criminal justice, education, law, medicine, and psychology. Since its inception in 2011, AIAFS has provided trainings throughout the forensic disciplines by having offered more than 125 on-site seminars and conferences on a variety of topics related to the field of forensic mental health. The training topics are broad in nature yet offer current and relevant research, trending content, and expertise from a host of trainers who are recognized locally, nationally, and internationally.

AIAFS is now pleased to offer a professional membership program. Membership benefits are designed to provide opportunities to enhance competency in topics related to the field of forensic mental health. Highlights of membership include participation in online and on-site educational trainings, collaboration with professionals in the field, networking opportunities, and facilitating connections with experts on relevant topics. Membership means being a part of a professional organization that is dedicated to increasing awareness within the forensic mental health field on a continuous basis.

Membership Benefits Include:

- An annual certificate of membership
- Access to a members-only library of over 100 webinars in an on-demand format, with at least six webinars on a forensic mental health topic added annually.
- A certificate of completion, handout, and post-test are included with each webinar to comply with the requirements of most professional continuing education boards.
- Exclusive access to a library of downloadable, one-page educational fact sheets designed to increase professional knowledge and awareness regarding a host of topics related to the fields of criminal justice and mental health.
- Access to Forensic Mental Health Insider, the official biannual publication of AIAFS, including current articles on trending subject matter.
- Access to the archived issues of Forensic Mental Health Practitioner, a previous biannual publication of AIAFS focusing on multidisciplinary scholarly articles relevant to professionals working in criminal justice, mental health, and human service settings.
- Opportunities for collaboration with professionals and students by publishing articles in AIAFS' Forensic Mental Health Insider.

Introductory Price for One Year of Membership:

- Individual – $99.00
- Student – $79.00*

* - Must submit proof of current enrollment

Join AIAFS today to be a part of a worldwide training and educational organization dedicated to innovative training, critical thinking, and service excellence. Registration takes less than two minutes for a full-year of professional connection!